ACTIVITY: LEADERSHIP DESCRIPTION

Suggestions for Presenters

1. Ask the participants to use large index cards to complete the following statement:
"When I think of leadership, I think..."
2. Collect the cards. Read each card and post on the wall or flip chart paper.
3. Group the cards in like categories and ask for volunteers to discuss why they chose the descriptions they wrote on the card.
4. Engage the group in a discussion about the ideas expressed on the cards.
5. Pay close attention to words in the group's definitions that are similar to the words underlined in the definitions on this slide.
6. Ask the participants which words from their definitions should be underlined as particularly telling words that help to define leadership.
7. Discuss the similarities and differences between participants' ideas that are charted on the flip chart and the definition on the slide.
